Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Word, the Wisdom of God, Was Made flesh

A sermon by St Peter Chrysologus

The holy Apostle has told us that the human race takes its origin from two men, Adam and Christ; two men equal in body but unequal in merit, wholly alike in their physical structure but totally unlike in the very origin of their being. The first man, Adam, he says, became a living soul, the last Adam a life-giving spirit.

The first Adam was made by the last Adam, from whom he also received his soul, to give him life. The last Adam was formed by his own action; he did not have to wait for life to be given him by someone else, but was the only one who could give life to all. The first Adam was formed from valueless clay, the second Adam came forth from the precious womb of the Virgin. In the case of the first Adam, earth was changed into flesh; in the case of the second Adam, flesh was raised up to be God.

What more need be said? The second Adam stamped his image on the first Adam when he created him. That is why he took on himself the role, and the name, of the first Adam, in order that he might not lose what he had made in his own image. The first Adam, the last Adam; the first had a beginning, the last knows no end. The last Adam is indeed the first; as he himself says: I am the first and the last.

I am the first, that is, I have no beginning. I am the last, that is, I have no end. But what was spiritual, says the Apostle, did not come first; what was living came first, then what is spiritual. The earth comes before its fruit, but the earth is not so valuable as its fruit. The earth exacts pain and toil; its fruit bestows subsistence and life. The prophet rightly boasted of this fruit: Our earth has yielded its fruit. What is this fruit? The fruit referred to in another place: I will place upon your throne one who is the fruit of your body. The first man, says the Apostle, was made from the earth and belongs to the earth; the second man is from heaven, and belongs to heaven.

The man made from the earth is the pattern of those who belong to the earth; the man from heaven is the pattern of those who belong to heaven. How is it that these last, though they do not belong to heaven by birth, will yet belong to heaven, men who do not remain what they were by birth but persevere in being what they have become by rebirth? The reason is, brethren, that the heavenly Spirit, by the mysterious infusion of his light, gives fertility to the womb of the virginal font. The Spirit brings forth as men belonging to heaven those whose earthly ancestry brought them forth as men belonging to the earth, and in a condition of wretchedness; he gives them the likeness of their Creator. Now that we are reborn, refashioned in the image of our Creator, we must fulfil what the Apostle commands: So, as we have worn the likeness of the man of earth, let us also wear the likeness of the man of heaven.

Now that we are reborn, as I have said, in the likeness of our Lord, and have indeed been adopted by God as his children, let us put on the complete image of our Creator so as to be wholly like him, not in the glory that he alone possesses, but in innocence, simplicity, gentleness, patience, humility, mercy, harmony, those qualities in which he chose to become, and to be, one with us.

NEW! Multi-Diocese Faith Formation Conference November 22-23

Santa Clara Convention Center
5001 Great America Parkway, Santa Clara
Sandra Martinez 510-267-8371

www.faithformationconference.com

This Faith Formation Conference is a multi-cultural event that highlights the importance of faith development at all levels of church and society, aimed at adults to enrich their faith and strengthen their knowledge and skills to do ministry in their church and in the world. If you're a parish minister, catechetical leader, catechist, teacher, youth minister or youth leader or perhaps you want to learn more about the Catholic faith - this conference is for you! Workshops are offered in English, Spanish and Vietnamese. Visit the website above for details about workshops, exhibitors, speakers, and registration. Printed registration material is also available at the Chancery reception desk. The Diocese of Oakland is a co-sponsor of this conference, together with the Dioceses of San Jose, Monterey and Stockton, and the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Congratulations!

St. Edward students continue to do very well at Moreau Catholic High School, outperforming many of their peers from other schools. Of the St. Edward students at Moreau, 33 of them, (or 74%) were on the second semester honor roll in June. Of those 33 students, 21 of them (63%) were on the Principal's Honor Roll (GPA of 3.5 and above).

Of our 8th grade class last year, all who applied to Moreau Catholic High School were accepted. Our students scored above many of their peers from other schools on the High School Placement Test (HSPT). Our students scored 11 points above the Moreau applicant testing pool in reading, 14 points above the applicant pool in math, and 13 points above the pool of applicants in language. If compared to the national average, those numbers are even higher.

Moreau HSPT 2013	Reading %ile	Math %ile	Language %ile
St. Edward Applicants	64	66	67
Moreau Applicant Pool	53	52	54
National Averages	53	54	56

While every class is different, and some will always score higher or lower than the previous class, the five-year averages show that St. Edward students consistently do better over the long-term.

Five-Year Average, HSPT

(Classes of 2009-2013)	Reading %ile	Math %ile	Language %ile
St. Edward Applicants	64	70	70
Moreau Applicant Pool	53	56	58
National Averages	53	54	56

Congratulations to our St. Edward Students.

Sacred Relics Of The Saints: Treasures Of The Church

St. Edward's Parish presents a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Tuesday, November 5, at 7:00 pm. Father Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with his very special ministry to teach about these holy objects. He will bring with him over 150 relics, some as old as 2000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. In addition, there will also be present a portion of the veil of Our Lady, as well as one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. In the Church's history many miracles and healings have been worked in the presence of relics, and many have been healed through this ministry. Please do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession.

Missa Domingo XXXI Do Tempo Comum

BOLETIM PORTUGUÊS MISSA DOMINGO XXXI DO TEMPO COMUM

Comentário: O evangelista Lucas, também neste domingo, continua a nos relatar a viagem que Jesus está fazendo rumo a Jerusalém. Há três semanas, ele estava na Samaria, quando curou os dez leprosos. Agora, continuando o seu caminho, chega a Jericó, uma grande cidade, uma cidade importante. Entre a multidão que procura ver Jesus se encontra Zaqueu, o chefe dos publicanos. Os publicanos eram os cobradores de taxas para o império romano. E, se como tais publicanos pegavam em muito dinheiro, sempre aproveitavam para roubar um “pouco”, para enriquecerem num curto espaço de tempo. Por isso, o povo não suportava os publicanos: chamava-lhes traidores porque colaboravam com a opressão do império romano, e os considerava trapaceadores, que sabiam por meio do engano roubar dinheiro para ficarem ricos.

Assim, este homem chamado Zaqueu era o chefe dos publicanos de Jericó, portanto um homem importante por causa de suas riquezas adquiridas de forma desonesta, e enfim, era o chefe desse sistema de enriquecimento. De fato, o evangelista faz questão de lembrar que Zaqueu era muito rico. Mas este Zaqueu desejava ver Jesus. Mas tinha um problema: era baixo de estatura e com tanta gente que havia em volta de Jesus não consegue ver nada. Por isso, fica nas pontas dos pés, mas vê só as cabeças do povo. Tenta se infiltrar entre as pessoas para ir um pouco mais adiante, mas não consegue. Não o deixam passar. Tá difícil!

Então tem uma ideia: se como sabe que Jesus está atravessando a cidade, Zaqueu sabe também qual caminho o Mestre de Nazaré percorrerá! Assim corre na frente e sobe numa árvore. Entendamos bem: sobe numa árvore, num sicômoro (é um tipo de figueira de raízes profundas e galhos fortes e dá boa sombra), diz o Evangelho, porque assim, do alto, poderá ver Jesus bem! Tentemos imaginar a cena: um homem importante, inclusive chefe dos publicanos, que sobe numa árvore como um menino, para esperar Jesus que passa. Pode parecer um pouco ridículo e os outros que o veem poderiam caçoar dele... mas a Zaqueu, neste momento, não importa nada: só quer ver Jesus. E ainda não sabe o que está para acontecer!!! Assim, quando Jesus chega embaixo do sicômoro, levanta os olhos, vê o cobrador de impostos e diz: “Zaqueu, desce depressa! Hoje eu devo ficar na tua casa”.

Que maravilha! Podemos imaginar a alegria de Zaqueu. Quem pode imaginar quanta emoção descer da árvore para encontrar-se com o Mestre que lhe faz a honra imensa de entrar na sua casa. Zaqueu se sente pleno de felicidade e salta da árvore, apressadamente, diz Lucas, porque quase ainda não acredita que uma coisa tão bela esteja acontecendo com ele.

Não consegue dizer nenhuma palavra, só se encaminha para conduzir Jesus para a sua casa e enquanto isso pensa: “O Mestre de Nazaré me chamou pelo nome, chamou exatamente a mim, como se fôssemos amigos há muito tempo, e eu ouvi bem: quer ficar mesmo na minha casa”.

Quando o povo viu que realmente Jesus estava indo a casa de Zaqueu, quando o veem entrar e sentar-se à mesa altamente arrumada para a refeição, começa a murmurar escandalizado. Mas como? Com tantas pessoas honestas, com tantas pessoas importantes e respeitáveis que existem em Jericó, este mestre vai comer justamente na casa do chefe dos ladrões? Uma vergonha! Uma coisa deste tipo não podia ser aceita. Zaqueu se dá conta do escândalo dos seus conterrâneos e é ele mesmo que cala todos os comentários, porque se levanta e diz em alta voz: “Senhor, eu dou a metade dos meus bens aos pobres e, se defraudei alguém, vou devolver quatro vezes mais”. Zaqueu reconhece não ter agido sempre honestamente, por isso está pronto a restituir quatro vezes mais aquilo que roubou com o engano. – Pe Carlos Henrique Nascimento
